

105.1516

Case - Timothy N. Pfeiffer,

Subject - Homicide, New Brunswick, N.J.,

Operative - 124.

124/general

November 5, 1922. Continuing on the above matter, Operative proceeded to #217 Prospect St., Susquehanna, Pa., and there at 7.30 a.m. interviewed a Mrs. Alice Simmons.

Operative made inquiry for Mr. Dunham, and was advised that he was not living there at the present time.

Mrs. Simmons upon being questioned further concerning Mr. Dunham, related that prior to the 10th of September, 1922, she was working in the lunchroom at the railroad station as a waitress, and that on the evening of the 8th or 7th of September, a man (Mr. Dunham) came into the lunchroom, and while eating supper, inquired as to where one could secure lodgings for the night, stating that he preferred to go to a private house rather than put up at one of the hotels. Mrs. Simmons then advised Mr. Dunham that he could have a room at her house, and when she left her work at about 10 p.m., she took him to the house with her.

Mr. Dunham remained at Mrs. Simmons's house the above night in question, leaving at about 8 a.m. in the morning. While stopping at Mrs. Simmons' house on the above mentioned night, Mr. Dunham had with him a shoe box wrapped in brown manila wrapping paper - Mr. Dunham told Mrs. Simmons that he had just bought a pair of shoes for himself. When Mr. Dunham left on the following morning, he took the shoe box with him.

Mr. Dunham on the above mentioned visit held no conversation with Mrs. Simmons, other than when leaving in the morning, upon passing out just said, "Good morning."

Mr. Leo Dunham is described by Mrs. Simmons, as follows:- About 35 years of age, 5 ft, 5 or 6 inches in height, slim build, smooth shaven, black hair. At this time he was wearing a Black Suit, Black Fordora Hat, Black Shoes, White Shirt, Collar and Tie; no overcoat.